
Nalla Kannada (English: Many Colours) is a 2016 Indian bilingual romantic drama film written and directed by Suseenthiran, and produced by Nalan Kumarasamy. It stars Prithviraj Sukumaran and Keerthy Suresh in lead roles. The film had its world premiere at the 69th Cannes Film Festival on May 17, 2016. The film was dubbed into Telugu as Manushulu Maheswari on June 25, 2018 with titular role of Pooja Kanth being played by Samantha Ruth Prabhu who also sang the title track "Manushulu Maheswari". The film starts off with the protagonist Nallasivam (Prithvira), who is a worker of a tile factory. He is in love with the factory owner Nagalakshmi's (Keerthy Suresh) daughter, Tamizhselvi, who works as a school teacher. Nagalakshmi had promised Tamizhselvi at the age of ten that she could marry anyone she wishes if she gets 90% marks in her SSLC examination. Ten years later, Tamizhselvi falls in love with Nallasivam without knowing that he is working for her family. Nagalakshmi is against her daughter's decision and decides to take things up with Nallasivam. While Nagalakshmi is trying to convince Nallasivam, Tamizhselvi suddenly feels that someone is playing a trick on her. She tells Nagalakshmi about this and Nagalakshmi shows her photographs of six boys who she says are potential suitors for Tamizhselvi. Nallasivam gets suspicious and starts following Tamizhselvi and discovers that she is an orphan who works as a school teacher at a boarding school. He also sees the nameplate on her locker "Teacher" written in Tamil. Tamizhselvi gets to know about Nallasivam's suspicion and confronts him. He says he cannot come between her and her family. She tells him she is ready to do anything for him except leave him, but Nallasivam decides to leave her behind. Suddenly, Tamizhselvi's former classmate falls in love with her and wants to marry her. She meets Nallasivam and asks him to tell their story to the person who wants to marry her, but he refuses and leaves the place after saying that she did not ask for his help and that he is willing to drop it all for her. Tamizhselvi gets heartbroken and decides to leave the town for good. Nallasivam's father is a widower and his mother died long ago. He comes back home one day to find his father missing and the house ransacked. He finds out that his father had left town with some people who had come to get him, but Nallasivam was not there at the time of departure. Nallasivam returns home and tries to get in touch with Tamizhselvi, but her cellphone number is unreachable.
